MR. SEWARD AS A PACIFICATOR.—The Army and Navy Journal thus sums up Secretary Seward's labors as a pacificator:

"Emulous of the part Lord Stanley has so felicitously played in Europe, and provoked by the best intentions in the world, Secretary Seward has lately proffered the friendly mediation of the United States in all the national quartels now going on in the Western hemisphere. As we approved of this pacific aim on the part of our well-meaning Premier, we regret to find that he is in the position of an unsuccessful literateur, whose contributions are "declined with thanks." From the Brazils, by way of London, we are told that Dom Pedro declines Mr. Seward's proposition to mediate for the purpose of restoring peace on the La Plat, a "with thanks for the kind offer." The Argentine Republic also respectfully declines our intervention; so, also, does Paraguay. In Mexico, Secretary Seward's humane intervention in behalf of Maximilian and his many officers, to save another butchery, has been as politely and coolly declined. Secretary Tejada's letter to Mr. Campbell intimates that Juarez and his Cabinet will do as they please about their captives, "hoping to continue to have the sympathies of the people and the Government of the United States." In like manner, Mr. Seward's proposition for a peace congress at Washington (resembling that of London) representing Spain, Chili, Peru, Ecuador, and Bolivia, to decide the dispute betwixt Spain and the South American republics. has been formally declined by Peru. Finally, Chili has taken the same ground; so that, just now, our country has lately endured "rejected addresses" from six countries-Mexico, Brazil, the Argentine Provinces, Paraguay, Chili, and Peru-not to speak of Spain, Ecnador, and Bolivia, who will either follow suit as politely, or else not notice our advances at all.

GRAPE CULTURE. - The mountain regions of Virginia-especially those portions along the eastern slopes of the Blue Ridge-can scarcely be surpassed for their adaptation to the culture of fruit. And the soil and climate in many localities are wonderfully similar to the most highly favored portions of Europe where grapes are raised in their greatest perfection and profusion.

Our farmers and landholders must awake to the importance of the matter. They have, heretofore, looked with indifference, if not with a species of contempt upon any production of mother earth except crops of corn, wheat and Grape culture and wine making must, at no distant day, equal, possibly exceed in importance any of the above staples. Two thirds of the cultivated lands of Hungary are planted in grapes; and thosse who have failed to observe the growth of this branch of horticultural enterprise in the United States within the past ten or fifteen years, will be astonished at the advance that has been made. The first attempts, on a large scale, made in this country were with foreign varieties of the grape-and in most, if not in all cases, were wholly un successful, at least for general vine-yard culture. Of later years the best native varieties have been greatly improved : the enterprise has passed beyond its experiment period, and American wines which, twenty years ago, were laughed at by pretended connoisseurs at home, have now obtained an enviable and a growing reputation, not only here, but abroad. - Charlottesville Chronicle.

CONSANGUINEOUS MARRIAGES. - The American Eclectic Review for May has an article by the late Professor W. Byrd Powell, in which he controverts the popular belief that the marriage of relations deteriorates the species by entailing on progeny idiocy, insanity and scrofula .-He says statistics on both sides of the Atlantic have failed to sustain the truth of this opinion. On the contrary, they show that there are more of the evils complained of outside the circle of consanguinity than within it, showing that the cause of the evils named is more extensive than consanguineal marriages. Dr. Patterson, of the Ohio Idiotic Asylum, informed the Professor that, although he has been particular in his inquiries as to the progenitors of the idiots brought to the institution, yet he has succeeded in finding but two per ct. of them to have had parents who were blood re-

Dr. Holmes, in the Guardian Angel, makes Byles Gridley read thus: "Where there is one man who squints with his eyes, there are a dozen who squint with their brains. It is an infirmity in one of the eyes, making the two nity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with Just so it is an inequality in the two halves of the brain that makes some men idiots and others rascals. I know one fellow whose right half is a genius, but the other hemisphere is a enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above fool; and I had a friend perfectly honest on mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be mainone side, but who was sent to jail because the tained, and all correspondence roturned or dethe other half had an inveterate tendency in the direction of picking pockets and appropriating æs atienum.

HEAVY BETTING ON RACES.-The betting upon races in England amongst the nobility and gentry has reached an enormous degree. At | IC the recont Derby, a Mr. Chaplin won $300,000. There were plenty of bets of £50,000 and £60,000. One man lost £120,000; and another lost £100,000. The Prince of Wales is reported to have been "interested" with Chaplin in Hermit, and to have won £70,000. The Dake of Hamilton made the wild and enormous bet of £180,000 against £6,000; but, fortunately for the Duke, the bet was cancelled.

TRUE. - A cotemporary remarks: "Wagons prices. cannot run without wheels-boats without wa ter-bull frogs jump without legs, or newspapers be carried on everlastingly without money, no more than a dog can wag his tail when he no more than a dog can wag his tall good, but has none. A Young Lady returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a witness. But many will say, how are we to soft ruby complexion of almost marble smooth- distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It ness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. STROLOGY. THE WORLD ASTONISHED At the wonderful revelations made by the Great Astrologist,

MADAME H. A. PERRIGO. She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of re-lations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those ong separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursne, and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament-the mal fic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon baid heads in from two to three months A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard.
